

Vice President

The role of Vice President generally is to work closely with and support the association President. The Vice President will undertake the duties and responsibilities of the President if the President becomes unavailable for any reason. (In accordance with association rules)

The role of Vice President is the ideal position for those considering becoming association Presidents in the future, as the Vice President should work closely President to support them to undertake the leadership and governance responsibilities of the association.

Responsibilities

The general role of the Vice President is to support the President, assisting them to fulfill their responsibilities.

Knowledge

To successfully undertake the role of Vice President the roles requires the person:

- To be well informed of all association activities, especially those of all sub committees
- Have a good working knowledge of the constitution, association rules and by laws, policies and procedures as well as the duties of all office holders
- Strong understanding of the legal and compliance obligations of running the association

Governance

The Vice President will assist the President ensure the association undertakes its key governance responsibilities include ensuring the association:

- Defines and documents its association culture and behaviors these are continually communicated to members, players, coaches, supporters and volunteers
- Has clearly defined goals and objectives and documented strategies and implementation plans on how they will be achieved
- Implements strong financial controls to protect the cash and assets of the associations as well as the volunteers handling the cash
- Has strong financial reporting, budgets and cash flow projections
- Ensure compliance of all obligations and the health and safety of all association participants
- Ensure all complaints and disputes are immediately investigated and responded to according to association policies and procedures
- All association positions, roles and sub committees have regularly reviewed position descriptions or terms of references
- Activities are documented in operations manuals, policies and procedures
- Volunteers are trained and supported throughout the year to undertake their roles successfully

Meetings, communication and key relationships

The Vice President will:

- Assist the President to set the agenda for each committee meeting and general meeting, including the association's annual general meeting

In the absence of the President, the Vice President will:

- Chair committee meetings
- Chair the annual general meeting
- Act as a spokesperson for the association and represent it at locally, regionally and nationally as required
- Ensure all responsibilities of the President are undertaken

Requirements

The Vice President is expected to:

- Act in the best interest of the members at all times
- Attend all Committee members
- Undertake the role in good faith and honesty

If at any stage the Vice President becomes aware of a personal conflict of interest, real or perceived between themselves and the association, they should immediately notify the Association Secretary of the conflict who will immediately inform all other committee members.

Essential Skills and requirements:

- Hold or willing to apply for a current volunteer “working with children” check (if relevant)
- Can communicate effectively
- Is well informed of all other tasks — handle bookings and entries, respond to general duties as directed by the association
- Can oversee organisational activities
- Is aware of the future directions and plans of members
- Has a good working knowledge of the rules of the association and the duties of all office holders and subcommittees
- Is a supportive leader for all organisations member’s.
- Able to chair committee or executive meetings.
- A good understanding of league requirements at local, regional and higher levels.
- Unbiased and impartial on all issues.
- Receptive to change.
- Dedicated association person.